granddaughter of the late Mr. A. T. Britton, a prominent lawyer and citizen of the resident set in Washington. Miss Britton's parents are among the well-known members of the Chevy Chase Club.

Miss Marguerite Barbour, whose trip to Europe ended with a serious illness, which looked for a time as though it would delay her coming out until next season, has about decided to keep her place among the buds of this year. She expects to make her first bow to society on New Year's Eve, in her mother's home, in Rhode Island avenue, which was occupied last season by Judge and Mrs. F. M. Hatch, who also presented a daughter to society last winter.

PERSONALS.

The French Ambassador and Mme. Jusserand entertained a dinner company last night at the embassy, having as their guests the British Ambassador and Mrs. Bryce, the Spanish Minister, Marquis de Villabona, the charge d'affaires of Turkey, Mr. A. Rustem Bey, Mr. Mitchell Jones, counselor of the British Embassy; Dr. Wallis, second secretary of the Spanish Legation; the counselor of the French Embassy, Mr. Lefevre-Pontalis; Gen. and Mrs. John W. Foster, Prof. and Mrs. Willis L. Moore, Mrs. John B. Henderson, Mr. John B. Henderson, Jr., the naval attaché of the French Embassy and Viscount d'Arly, the military attaché of the French Embassy, Count de Chambrun; Dr. Douglas Freshfield, Miss Freshfield, and Miss Beatrix Paul, house guests at the British Embassy; Miss Sarah Lee, and Miss Helen Lee.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon-Cumming entertained a dinner company of young people last evening.

The Russian Ambassador and Baroness Rosen and Baroness Elizabeth, who have been absent for a long time, are expected to return to the embassy November 30.

The Argentine Minister and Mme. Portela have taken an apartment at the Shoreham for an indefinite period, pending their departure from Washington. Their legation will be thrown open for a season sale of its contents this week, although the Minister will not leave until next spring.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Bryce, who arrived in New York a few days ago, will come to the British Embassy this week and be the guests of the Ambassador and Mrs. Bryce.

Miss Maria Calvo, daughter of the Costa Rican Minister, is visiting in New York.

The Norwegian Minister and Mme. Gude and their two daughters, the Misses Sigrid and Ingeborg Gude, will go to Takoma Park Sanatorium to-day to remain there for a month. The Minister was quite ill there last spring and they return there for rest and recreation whenever there is a lull in affairs so they can get away.

Count Torok, of the Austrian Embassy, one of the popular bachelors of the diplomatic circle, has sailed for Europe, not to return to this post again, which is a matter of sincere regret to the young people of that set. He will probably be promoted to a European post.

Mr. A. C. Horstmann, attaché of the German Embassy, has taken the house, 1812 N. street, for the winter, which is the house occupied last season by Mrs. Frederic Benedict.

Lieut. von Buening has arrived in Washington for the winter from his home in Germany. He is a brother of Adolf von Buening, who was married to Mrs. Gordon McKay during the time he was connected with the German Embassy here. The lieutenant is a wealthy young bachelor and has already become a factor in the young people's set.

Mrs. Kennard, wife of the second secretary of the British Embassy, will entertain at a luncheon to-morrow for Miss Freshfield and Miss Paul, who are guests at the embassy.

The Vice President and Mrs. Sherman will not come to Washington for the season until after Thanksgiving, which they will spend with their family in Utah. The Vice President spent two days in Washington last week, looking at houses for the season, and he and Mrs. Sherman will probably come down for a day or two within the next week, to settle upon one.

Miss Rother, who was the guest, at Fort Myer, Va., of Mrs. Chaffee, has returned to her home in Tennessee.

The Italian cruiser Etruria is expected to arrive off the Arsenal to-morrow, and a number of entertainments have already been planned by the officers for the entertainment of its officers. The Etruria was anchored off the Arsenal for a few weeks last summer, and Count Casallino and the other officers made many friends here during their stay. The Etruria will remain here for about a fortnight.

Gen. Miles, who recently returned to his residence, 1233 Seventeenth street, for the winter, will entertain a number of the guests who will come to Washington for the wedding of his son, Lieut. Sherman Miles, and Miss Yulea Noble, which will take place on Wednesday, November 24, in St. John's Church.

Baron Hardenbrook, of the German Embassy, is expected in Washington some time this week. He has been abroad most of the summer, and sailed from Rotterdam for New York a week ago.

WEDDINGS-ENGAGEMENTS

The marriage of Miss Mary Estelle Berry, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. George W. Berry, and Mr. Julian Stuart Hall, of Prince George County, Md., took place at noon Wednesday in the home of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Dobyns, in Belmont road. The house was decorated with autumn leaves and white chrysanthemums. The ceremony was performed in the presence of only a few friends and relatives, owing to the deep mourning of the bride's family. Mr. Charles Meigs Berry, brother of the bride, gave her in marriage. She wore a gown of white crepe de chine, with a tulle veil, which was held with a cluster of lilies of the valley, and she carried a silver-bound prayer book. Miss Dorothy Dobyns, a niece of the bride, was her only attendant, and wore white mulle trimmed with lace, and carried pink chrysanthemums. The best man was Mr. James Berry, cousin of the bride. Following the ceremony there was a breakfast at which Mr. and Mrs. Hall left for Atlantic City. Mrs. Hall wore a traveling suit of black cloth, with hat to match. After December they will be at home at the family home of Mr. Hall, Forest Hill, in Prince George County.

Miss Nannie E. Decatur, of Virginia, and Mr. George W. McGuinn, of this city, were married in the Salem Methodist Church, near Fredericksburg, Va., on Thursday, by the pastor, Rev. D. B. Gates. Miss Minnie M. Limerick was maid of honor and Mr. H. Decatur was best man. A reception followed in the home of the bride's parents, after which Mr. and Mrs. McGuinn left on their wedding trip. They will make their home in this city.

The marriage is announced by Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Regan of their daughter, Pauline E., to Mr. John E. Beavers on Tuesday evening last in Baltimore, Rev. Father O'Donovan officiating.

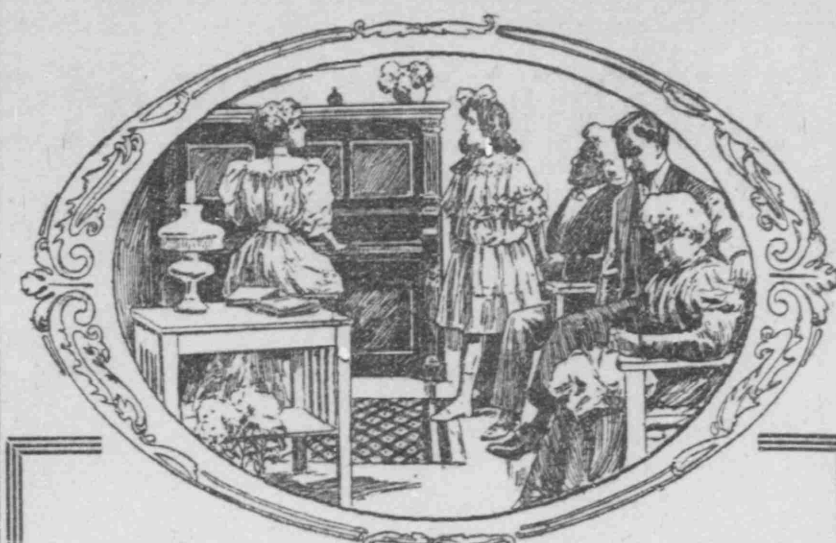

Miss Marion V. Williamson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Williamson, and Dr. Dayton C. Wiggin, U. S. A., were married on Wednesday at 3 o'clock. The ceremony was performed in the Gunton-Temple Memorial Church by the pastor, Rev. John Lee Allison. Only the intimate friends and relatives were present, and no cards were issued. There were no attendants, and the bride wore a traveling suit of navy blue cloth, with a large hat to match, and carried a shower bouquet of orchids and lilies of the valley. Dr. and Mrs. Wiggin left Washington later in the afternoon, and are spending some time in Virginia, and will later go to Chicago and then to San Francisco, where they will be until early in December, when they will sail for Manila. Dr. Wiggin's new post of duty.

Mrs. Henrietta King and Mr. Thomas J. Wingfield will be married November 24 in the home of the bride's aunt, Miss Florence King, in Birmingham, Ala. Only relatives and a few intimate friends have been invited to the ceremony.

Invitations have been issued by Miss Emma Jones to the marriage of her niece, Miss Mary Jones Cobb, to Mr. Clarence Dodge, which will take place soon. The bride will be given in marriage by her brother, Mr. Norville H. Cobb, and will be attended by her cousin, Miss Ethel Jones, as maid of honor. Mr. J. Raymond Weirich, Mr. L. B. Nye, and Mr. E. S. Wolfe will be the ushers and Mr. Joseph Dodge best man.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph B. Wilson, of the Iroquois, have sent out cards announcing the marriage of their daughter Lotta and Mr. Burgess W. Marshall, the latter of North Carolina. The ceremony was performed in Philadelphia on Thursday, November 4. The announcement will be something of a surprise to the bride's friends here, where she enjoyed unusual and deserved popularity. Mr. Marshall was formerly chief of the field division at San Francisco, Cal., and is now assistant chief special service division of the General Land Office.

Invitations have been issued by Mrs. Constantine Chase for the marriage reception of her daughter, Miss Mary Louise Chase, and Lieut. Robert R. Ralston, Engineer Corps, U. S. A., which will take place at Raucher's, Wednesday afternoon, December 1, at 4 o'clock. The wedding ceremony will take place at 3:30 o'clock in the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. Harry Goodfellow, 111 D Sales street, and will be attended by members of the two families only. Miss
